

River Deep, Mountain High

The new topic is here and we have some fantastic homework challenges for you all to complete. Over the next 6 weeks, please work with your child to complete as many of these creative challenges as you can. This is in addition to their My Maths which will continue to be set on a Wednesday. Each of the challenges will be rewarded with a number of smilies shown in each box. You can use this as your checklist to remember which challenges you have completed.
