

Seeking patterns, making links with the world around us.

Communicating our thoughts, ideas and findings through reports, explanations, tables, graphs and illustrations.

Independent investigation in collaboration with peers.

Enquiring by questioning, planning, resourcing, observing, recording, analysing.

Noticing changes over time.

Concluding using appropriate scientific vocabulary in context.

Exploring science in the environment through outdoor learning and educational visits.